

Lycoming County SPCA's First Responder Pet Photo Contest

Top fundraising photos will be featured in the 2019 Pawtraits Calendar!

What? Lycoming County first responders (police, fire, EMS and dispatch) who service any community within Lycoming County are invited to enter a photo in the Lycoming County SPCA's 2019 Pawtraits Calendar Contest.

Why? The Pawtraits Calendar Contest is a fundraising pet photo contest. All proceeds from donors and calendar sales benefit the Lycoming County SPCA. These funds allow our local shelter to help homeless and abused animals across Lycoming County. Here are some statistics from just last year:

2,492 Animals Served

486 Investigations

93 Animals Seized

606 Low Income
Spay/Neuter Assistance

How? Simply fill in the information below and submit to the SPCA along with your photo by 2:00 p.m., August 1, 2018. All entered photos will be included in the calendar. The first responders who raise the most money will be featured with their own month in the calendar like Williamsport Police and the Williamsport Fire Department and SREMS did last year! $10 Entry Fee waived for all first responders.

Contest Rules

1. Human/s must be a Police, Fire, EMS or Dispatch serving Lycoming County at the time of the entry
2. Entrants must have prior approval from their supervisor to participate in the contest
3. Human/s must appear in their department uniform with a domestic animal (no scene photos please)
4. If you are the top fundraiser, you and your companion animal must be willing to have your photo re-taken (if necessary) by the SPCA's professional photographer at a mutually agreed to time and place
